Foreword

This year was basically the same as any high school year; we studied, had fun, experienced sad moments of trial and error. School bonds were passed. There were games and dances; voices were hoarse from pep rallies, rooting, and singing. There were brief moments of glory for some of us in sports, musical and dramatic productions. All shared the hopeless reality of examinations and deadlines, the semester grades, the noontime cafeteria rush. These impressions are only a few that were packed into this full year.

Credit for the production of this book goes to the loyal WAK-IGH-AN Staff. The staff, however, has furnished only the outlines of the story that we find when we turn these pages filled with warm smiles of friendship and many happy recollections. The rest is up to the individual. Underclassmen who return to WHS in the fall will continue to keep up the high standards of the school and strive for improvement. Graduates will go their seperate ways using the knowledge they have gained here to reach their successes.

It is not today that you will appreciate the WAK-IGH-AN. Tomorrow, when it is not so easy to think back on 1964, we will treasure the memories this book has stored for us.

Homecoming

At 6:15 the Wakelon High School Marching Band was ready to begin the annual Homecoming Parade.

Second place winner in the parade was the Library Club float.

Cheerleaders threw coveted footballs to fifty lucky people in the tremendous crowd.

The National Honor Society captured first place with this float featuring a clock and lovely NHS members.

Miss Vickie Tart assumes band director's position at the pep rally climaxing "Black and Gold Day."

Rushed preparations began for Wakelon's Homecoming bright and early Monday morning, October 21st, 1963. This was to be a week packed with hard work, frenzied students, welcomed alumni, and fond memories for all. Thursday was designated as "Black and Gold Day" as over 250 Wakelonians demonstrated true Bulldog loyalty and school spirit in the school's colors. Highlighting Thursday was the huge pep rally and bonfire sponsored by the Monogram Club that night. At last the big day came, and though rain threatened, nothing could dampen the spirits of Wakelonians as they put finishing touches on floats and cars. A fabulous halftime show was presented by the band, and at last the big moment arrived when one of eight lucky girls was to be crowned. All looked beautiful, but none were lovelier than Miss Joan Baker, Wakelon Homecoming Queen, and Miss Betsy Long, our Maid of Honor. Total success was achieved when the Bulldogs downed Fremont 33-12.

Miss Donna Faye Stallings, Sophomore Representative, smiles for cameras in the crowd.

Cheerleaders stand in wonder of that last play!

Our Queen was serenaded with favorite melodies as the band, under the direction of Mr. "Scooby" Burns, played on.

Spectators take time out to visit the new concession stand and stock up on eats.

Linda Liles, reigning Wakelon Homecoming Queen, stands with the '63 Homecoming Court, holding bouquet presented to her prior to the crowning of her new successor.

The climax arrives and Miss Joan Baker is crowned Wakelon Homecoming Queen, 1963!

The Bulldogs wrap up a very successful evening on the gridiron, the score—Wakelon 33, Fremont 12.

Cheerleaders

"Whadda we want? Touchdown!"..."Go! Wakelon! Go!"..."Basket! Basket! Basket! Boys! You make the baskets! We'll make the noise!" These are but a few of the battlecries which burst from the lungs of the cheerleaders throughout the year. These are the energetic, bouncy girls who are the symbols of school spirit and good sportsmanship, the girls who unite the student body into one giant, echoing voice urging the team on to victory.

We've got a team - There's no doubt about it!

Bum! Bum! Bum! Here they come! These are the Bulldogs who held a 3-6-0 record this season.

Baseball

The Wakelon High Baseball Team was not picked at the time of the publishing of the '64 WAK-IGH-AN. We anticipated a great season, with many lettermen returning; not to mention the large host of new team members. Wakelon's baseball facilities were greatly improved with the beginning of construction of a new baseball park.

Co-Captains

Our Coach

Maurice H. Chapman

Our coach is a man of many moods. His influence is felt throughout the school, whether it is the laughing, joking Coach, or the Coach with fire in his eyes and a nice thick dictionary in his hand. In only five short years, Coach Maurice H. Chapman has turned a practically winless team of Wakelon Bulldogs into a team respected and feared by opponents. He may often be seen walking to school...telling jokes to the football players...testing his world history class...making his P. E. class line the football field, move bleachers, and other useful tasks... in a red tie at the basketball games...fussing with the boys at halftime...expressing his opinion to anyone who crosses him...teasing the girls...standing up for what he believes is right...supervising the Monogram Club meetings...contemplating, alone, with only a cup of coffee and a cigarette as companions.

When We Were Very Young . . .

Activities

Though the days are rushed, and sometimes trying, everyone can relax and feel the tension wear off, as Willie, the janitor, sits down and gives the old eighty-eight keys a real workout. Whether in school or out, the extra-curricular activities play an important part of student life, and good times are very much a part of Wakelon High's activities.

The Student Council is sponsored by Mrs. Doris Privette, pictured above, and by our principal, Mr. J. C. Hawkins.

Seventeen members, possessing an overall scholastic average of 80, leadership qualities, and good character, make up this year's Student Council. Included are class presidents, and representatives based on the scale of one representative to each twenty-five students composing each class. The Student Council is a service club which carried out the following activities this year: the annual Homecoming activities, assorted assembly programs, operation of the ice cream store and concession stand at home basketball games, and a wide variety of socials.

To be eligible for membership, one must have played a Varsity sport or must have been a cheerleader for at least one season. Projects undertaken by the Monogram Club this year include the Powder Puff Football Game, a Womanless Wedding, and car washes, which brought in funds for a whirlpool bath and weights. Our Coach, Maurice Chapman, sponsors the Monogram Club.

Beta Club members burned the midnight oil this year as the quality point average was raised to 3.5. Membership in this honorary organization is based on three other factors: achievement, leadership, and character. The Beta Club's purposes include stimulating effort, rewarding achievement, and encouraging and assisting its members to continue their educations following high school graduation. Various projects concerning school and community service were carried out throughout the year. Vickie Tart was sponsored as Miss Beta Club in the Homecoming Parade. Several members attended various Beta Club functions throughout the year.

For the first time at Wakelon, on the night of November 22, the chapter held its first local fair which demonstrated to the Zebulon community the purposes, branches of work and teaching, leadership abilities, and community services of the F.F.A. The chapter entered all Federation contests in hopes of winning district, state, and national honors. National F.F.A. Week was advertised with posters, pamphlets, and stickers. WPTF was the radio station broadcasting Wakelon's annual F.F.A. program. The Future Farmers and their fathers were entertained at the annual "Father and Son Banquet."

Science Club

Students interested in furthering their knowledge in the field of science compose the membership of the Science Club. Under the supervision of Mrs. Carol Stanley's watchful eye, members carry out various experiments. Many guest speakers were featured. Their largest project of the year, of course, was the annual Science Fair, in which all Science Club members displayed their scientific ability with very interesting and unusual individual projects.

"Miss Palmer, which color thread?"..."Miss Palmer, where do these go?"... "How much sugar do you add?" These phrases are representative of the Home Economics class and of the organization sponsored by Miss Mary Lacy Palmer, the Future Homemakers of America. One of Wakelon's largest clubs, the F.H.A. undertook the following projects for the 1963-64 school year: a booth at the annual Five County Fair was operated and maintained; a package for the needy was gathered during the Yuletide season; the aged of the community were visited during the year; Fashion Shows, individual projects, and numerous guest speakers were features of interest. Below is a receipe which should be used by everyone.

Success

1/2 cup planning, 1 1/2 cups work and worry, 1 cup happiness and fun. Mix well; results guaranteed.

The F. H. A. is sponsored by Miss Mary Lacy Palmer.

National Honor Society

Mrs. Ann Strickland sponsors the National Honor Society.

Officers: BROOKS BOYKIN, President; CARL WILLIAMS, Vice President; GALE PEARCE, Secretary; BETSY LONG, Treasurer; FRANCES KIMBALL, Reporter.

Membership in the Early H. Moser Chapter of the National Honor Society is based on four ideals: Scholarship, Leadership, Character, and Service. An average of at least three quality points per subject must be maintained by each member. This year's society has been very active, undertaking such projects as the publishing and selling of programs at each home game, selling candy, and the making and selling of cupcakes at each home basketball game. Funds raised from these projects went to give scholarships to two worthy seniors. The NHS netted first prize for the lovely float submitted in the Homecoming parade. A needy family's Christmas was brightened with gifts from Wakelon's NHS. There was the annual induction, honoring the namesake, second semester. This year's state convention was held at Camp LeJeune.

Second prize in the annual Homecoming parade went to the Library Club for its lovely float. Other activities included the observance of National Book Week and National Library Week. The faculty was presented with a tea, and various assembly and P.T.A. programs were presented on behalf of our Library Club.

F.T.A.

The F. T. A. is a very active club of young ladies who render daily their services in assisting teachers who compose the Wakelon faculty. In this way members decide if teaching is really the career they wish to persue, besides gaining valuable practice in the classroom. Selling mums was only one of the many activities carried on by the Future Teachers. Other functions included the Kleenex sale during the Christmas Holiday Season and a tea for the faculty during Teaching Career Month. The annual banquet was well represented in the spring.

The F. T. A. is sponsored by Miss Blanche Gay.

Journalism Club

The Journalism Club holds as its highest aim the publication of a school paper that will reflect the true character of Wakelon High School. This aim was fulfilled in each of the nine issues of BULLDOG BARKS. Teachers greatly appreciated the daily circular, WEE BULLDOG BARKS, which contained various information concerning a wide variety of topics. Delegates attending the Press Institute held in Chapel Hill were Celia Hales and Brenda Arnold. The Wakelon Press sponsored a tea for the faculty and Senior Class, and presented Wakelon School with the North Carolina flag.

Mrs. Doris Privette sponsors the Journalism Club.

Boys' and Girls' State

A week packed full of recreation, making new friends from all over North Carolina, and learning about how our government operates, was sponsored by the American Legion and American Legion Auxilary. Boys' State and Girls' State were held at UNC at Chapel Hill and UNC at Greensboro, respectively. Excited delegates were Charles Collins, Lewis Liles, Celia Hales, and Donna Denton. Their alternates were Brooks Boykin, Carl Williams, Joan Baker, and Vickie Tart.

Bus Drivers

6:30 can come mighty early in the morning! Ask someone who knows—a busdriver. These are the high school students who receive very little recognition for the tremendous responsibility they accept and fulfill in transporting the students of Wakelon to and from school.
